Hallie McMullen is a certified judge for NACSW and AKC with over 20 years of experience working and training dogs in law enforcement. In 1997 Hallie certified her first German Shepherd as a drug detection and patrol dog. Her passion for training and helping other handlers led her on a path to complete certification as a Canine Trainer and in 2002 she earned certification as a Canine Team Evaluator. In 2003 Hallie moved to Idaho and developed a training program for the agency she currently works for. In addition to scent work, Hallie's training interests include competition with her German Shepherds in conformation, obedience, rally, herding, tracking and Schutzhund.
